

Fishers Circle

Classic Dry White 2005

Sourced from premium vineyards, Fishers Circle embodies the style and depth of character that Western Australia is famous for.

This is definitely a fresh Western Australian catch, perfect for lazy days and breezy nights. So delicious, Fishers Circle Classic Dry White is too good to just throw back.

Regional Source

Western Australia.

Vintage Conditions

The 2005 growing season began with a cold, wet winter which promoted even budburst across all varieties. Spring was dry, which kept disease at bay, and warm during flowering. Summer was dry and sunny with moderate temperatures and cool nights. All varieties ripened well prompting an early harvest.

Maturation

This wine was matured in stainless steel to maintain the pure varietal flavours.

Winemaker Comments: Charlotte Newton

Colour

Pale straw flecked with green.

Nose

Aromas of citrus and tropical fruit provide for a fresh and vibrant bouquet.

Palate

Citrus and tropical fruits flavours flow from the nose onto a fresh, rich fruit palate. Natural acidity gives the wine a crisp, fresh and inviting finish.
